

Dear WVU Students,

Are you ready for some Mountaineer football? I can hardly wait until our first game on September 1 when we take on Western Michigan. As we get ready to kick off another exciting football season, I am confident that not only will we be winners on the football field, but off the field as well.

Let's show our Mountaineer pride by celebrating responsibly and positively on every game day. Join with me and do your part to promote a safe and friendly atmosphere. Show respect for all fans, including opposing fans, players, and coaches.

In preparation for Saturday's game and future games, please be reminded of the following policies that will help promote a safe environment in and around the stadium and allow all of us to have a good time and enjoy the game:

- ~ Individuals observed engaged in dangerous or disruptive activity - for example, throwing objects in the stadium or onto the playing field; using obscene language; or possessing alcohol - will be subject to immediate removal from the stadium and possible criminal charges.
- ~ Only authorized personnel are permitted on the field; those who enter are trespassing and will be arrested and fined. In addition, an assault on an emergency responder is considered a felony.
- ~ Any attempt at reproducing and/or altering student tickets in any manner is illegal and could be categorized as theft of services. Such activities may result in disciplinary action, including loss of athletic privileges as well as expulsion.

Cheer Loud! Be Proud! Let's go,
Mountaineers!
